About At-Bay

At-Bay is the InsurSec provider for the digital age. By combining world-class technology with industry-leading insurance and security expertise, At-Bay was designed from the ground up to empower businesses of every size to meet cyber risk head on. The At-Bay Group includes a cybersecurity company and a full-stack insurance company. As an insurance company, At-Bay offers Cyber, Tech E&O, and Miscellaneous Professional Liability policies.

Our InsurSec approach provides end-to-end protection for modern businesses. It's a force multiplier that includes security, threat intelligence, and human experts to close the SMB cybersecurity gap – all as part of their insurance policy.
